
Red Bull tops

RED Bull Malaysia has been named the number one energy drink in Malaysia, with a 40 per cent market share within its category, according to a survey by the Nielsen Co. In a statement issued yesterday, Red Bull said it has been at the top of the list within the energy drink category for the last decade, with an average increase in market share of 75 per cent over the last three years.